"COMING IN FROM THE COLD: HOW VOLUNTARY
DISCLOSURES OF FOREIGN BANK ACCOUNTS
HAVE CHANGED DEALING WITH THE IRS"

On March 23, the IRS announced a new initiative to encourage taxpayers with foreign bank accounts to correct any non-compliance in reporting those accounts. The process established for this new program will change the way taxpayers have dealt with the IRS for over half a century, and the IRS has threatened to develop criminal cases against taxpayers who do not voluntarily comply by September 23.
