Jennifer Weidler represents clients in various matters related to state and local taxation, with an emphasis on the minimization of state and local tax obligations. Ms. Weidler represents clients in all aspects of state and local tax compliance and litigation, including challenging audit determinations and real estate assessment decisions, seeking refunds from state and local governments, handling administrative appeals, litigating unresolved disputes in state and local courts, and handling post-trial appeals. Additionally, Ms. Weidler assists clients in reducing interest and penalties associated with past due taxes through the use of state and local amnesty, voluntary disclosure programs and administrative appeals.

Ms. Weidler is a frequent contributor to the firm's State and Local Tax Blog and is co-author of the Pennsylvania chapter of the American Bar Association Tax Section State and Local Tax Committee Property Tax Deskbook.
