Justin E. VandenBout maintains a general litigation practice, with an emphasis on complex commercial litigation, personal injury litigation, products liability, and insurance coverage. He has extensive experience in insurance coverage litigation and has been successful in obtaining a dismissal of claims against clients through Motion for Summary Judgment in first party bad faith, DTPA, breach of contract, and declaratory judgment actions. In addition, Mr. VandenBout has successfully defended and prosecuted a broad range of cases in state and federal courts involving trademark infringement, breach of contract, DTPA, products liability, maritime and admiralty law, wrongful death, aviation law, premises defect liability, and construction law. His exposure to a wide variety of litigation makes him well suited to represent clients in a range of matters.
