Trusts & Estates Blawg

Rose K. Drupiewski maintains a diverse, broadly-based estate planning and estate administration practice. She works with individuals, families and organizations at every stage of the estate planning process, including drafting wills and advanced directives, restructuring family businesses, managing estates and drafting trusts. Ms. Drupiewski has handled matters ranging from hundreds of thousands of dollars to those exceeding hundreds of millions.

In addition, Ms. Drupiewski has particular experience working with tax-exempt organizations, and has structured charitable trusts and family foundations. She has formed numerous private foundations and public charities, and assisted many organizations with their applications for federal and state tax exemption, as well as continuing to advise these entities with their ongoing tax compliance and business needs.
