History

In the mid 1960's, Hank Chamberlain and George Hrdlicka shared a vision of creating a premier boutique law firm specializing in tax matters. They chose to join forces in Houston and quickly created a law practice of distinction. Veterans of the Tax Division of the United States Department of Justice, their work ethic, knowledge and ability to achieve effective solutions for their clients quickly earned the new firm an excellent reputation.

As the city grew, so did the firm, adding prestigious name partners and highly qualified attorneys along with complementary areas of practice. Alongside our cornerstone tax practice, we have built a diversified law firm with expertise in admiralty and maritime law, construction law, corporate, securities & finance, employee benefits and executive compensation, energy law, equine law, estate planning and administration, international and immigration law, litigation and real estate law. The firm's expansion to Atlanta in 1986 and Philadelphia in 2007 has added new dimensions to the services we can offer our clients, whether around the corner or around the globe.
