

Practice Areas

- International & Immigration
- Tax

Education

- Texas A&M, B.S., B.A., 1998
- American University, J.D., 2001
- University of Houston, L.L.M., Taxation, 2007

Honors

- Dean's Fellow (teaching assistant) for First Year Writing Program, American University
- Distinguished Student Award for Academic Excellence, Texas A&M

Bar Admissions

- Texas
- Virginia (Inactive)

Geji T. Loether

Associate
Houston

1200 Smith Street
14th Floor
Houston, TX 77002-4310
Tel: 713.654.9642
Fax: 713.658.2553
Geji.loether@chamberlainlaw.com
www.chamberlainlaw.com

Geji Loether focuses her practice on international taxation, and matters relating to obtaining regulatory approval for businesses seeking to operate in the United States. She has particular experience within the aviation industry, having interacted with a broad range of federal and state regulatory agencies including the Departments of Transportation, Federal Aviation Administration, Homeland Security, Customs, Immigration, Secretaries of State and local port authorities.

Practice Areas

- International Tax
- Immigration
- Trademarks
- Aviation

Significant Matters

- Attained a successful resolution of a user fee audit in which the proposed underpayment amount was nearly $500,000
- Attained domain name deregistration and transfer of the domain to the client through international arbitration procedures

Professional Affiliations

- American Bar Association
- Houston Bar Association
- Houston Young Lawyers Division