CHAMBERLAIN HRDLICKA'S ANNETTE IDALSKI EARNS NATIONAL RECOGNITION FOR LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT LEADERSHIP

ATLANTA, July 5, 2016 – Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams, & Aughtry announces the election of its Atlanta-based shareholder Annette A. Idalski as a fellow to The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. This prestigious designation is awarded to attorneys with more than 20 years of practice and sustained outstanding performance in the profession, exemplifying integrity, dedication and excellence. To be invited into the fellowship, lawyers, including opposing counsel, and judges made recommendations to mark Idalski's achievements in "setting the standards for professionalism and civility."

"Annette demonstrates leadership by not only tackling the most challenging employment matters, but also by serving as a valuable resource to her clients and peers every day," said Wayne Risoli, managing partner of Chamberlain Hrdlicka. "The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers is a respected benchmark in the legal community, and Annette's fellowship is reflective of the outstanding reputation that she has cultivated. We are proud of her and appreciate this recognition of her hard work."

Idalski will be installed among the 21st group of fellows on November 12, at the American Bar Association's (ABA) Labor and Employment Law Section's annual conference in Chicago.

The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers is represented by more than 1,400 members in the U.S. and Canada. Its mission is to further establish the profession in all its aspects of labor and employment law, including individual rights, collective bargaining and dispute resolution. The College was established in 1995 through an initiative of the Council of the ABA's Section of Labor and Employment Law. It operates as a free standing organization recognizing those who, by long and outstanding service, have distinguished themselves as leaders in the field.
