Chamberlain Hrdlicka Sponsors Tomorrow's Attorneys Pipeline Project

TAPP's primary goal is to help the legal profession more adequately represent the people it serves by increasing diversity in the legal profession. It does this by providing diverse high school students with concrete, motivating opportunities to learn about the law and begin planning for their law school educations. TAPP provides high school students with the opportunity to speak with lawyers one-on-one about legal careers, education, study habits, and diversity in the legal profession. Click here for more on this story.
