Two Chamberlain Hrdlicka Attorneys Selected as 2007-2008 Georgia Super Lawyers

ATLANTA — April 17, 2008 — Two Chamberlain Hrdlicka attorneys, Gary S. Freed and Jimmy L. Paul, are ranked among Georgia's "super lawyers" in the 2007-2008 issue of Super Lawyers - Corporate Counsel Edition.

Super Lawyers is published as a special supplement in leading newspapers and city and regional magazines across the country. The polling, research and selection processes are performed by Law & Politics, a publication of Key Professional Media Inc., based in Minneapolis. This is the first Corporate Counsel Edition of Super Lawyers, and it lists Georgia's top business litigators, as determined by a survey of Georgia lawyers, followed by evaluations conducted by Law & Politics staffers and a panel of peer lawyers.

"To have two of our business litigators in the premiere issue of Super Lawyers – Corporate Counsel Edition is quite an honor for our firm," said Wayne A. Risoli, managing shareholder of Chamberlain Hrdlicka. "Gary and Jimmy are talented professionals, and it is a personal milestone for these attorneys to know that their peers recognize them as the best in their profession."

Law & Politics strictly adheres to a rigorous selection process, with the goals of casting as wide a net as possible and evaluating attorneys in the most objective terms, verifying and validating all data. The only way a lawyer can be listed in Super Lawyers magazine is through this selection process. According to the magazine, the determination of whether a lawyer will be placed on the Super Lawyers list is independent of advertising or any other payments.
