

Wolters Kluwer Names Two Chamberlain Hrdlicka Attorneys to Panel of Nation's Top Tax Law Experts

Legal Tax Advisory Board to Focus on Trends, Issues in U.S. Tax Arena

HOUSTON (June 10, 2013) — Wolters Kluwer Law & Business, the leading provider of legal research products and the nation's leading publisher of tax information and analysis, has selected Chamberlain Hrdlicka shareholders Stewart M. Weintraub and Larry A. Campagna to its newly-created Legal Tax Advisory Board.

The Wolters Kluwer Legal Tax Advisory Board will serve as a forum for the nation's leading tax lawyers to discuss major tax law and regulatory trends, as well as issues like technology that are shaping the practice of tax law in the U.S. today.

The Board consists of 18 of the nation's leading tax law authorities from top law firms, academia and legal think tanks. Chamberlain Hrdlicka is one of only two firms with multiple attorneys represented, a reflection of Chamberlain's long history as a tax powerhouse.

"The collective experience brought to the Board by these members represents one of the greatest concentrations of expertise in tax that I have seen," said Board Chair Charles Rettig. "We are in a unique position to help Wolters Kluwer better understand emerging legal and regulatory trends in tax and to provide an open forum for the thoughtful exchange of ideas and comments on both substantive and procedural tax issues while providing practical solutions for the most significant challenges facing tax practitioners today."

Weintraub, based in the Philadelphia office, has centered his practice upon state and local taxation for more than 40 years. He litigates state and local tax cases from audit through the appellate courts, in addition to helping clients plan and structure transactions so that all state and local tax obligations are minimized. Prior to entering private practice, Weintraub was Chief of Tax Litigation for the City of Philadelphia's Law Department where he also served as chief counsel of the 1980 Mayor's Tax Reform Commission. In 2003, Weintraub served as a member of the City's Tax Reform Commission.

Campagna, based in the Houston office, has established a national reputation for successfully handling federal, state and local tax controversies. He has resolved thousands of civil and criminal tax matters over the past 30 years and now shares his knowledge as an adjunct professor at the University of Houston Law Center.

About Chamberlain Hrdlicka

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is a diversified business law firm with offices in Houston, Atlanta, Philadelphia, Denver and San Antonio. The firm represents both public and private companies as well as individuals and family-owned businesses across the nation. In addition to tax planning and tax controversy, the firm offers corporate, securities and finance, employment law and employee benefits, energy law, estate planning and administration, intellectual property, international and immigration law, commercial and business litigation, real estate and construction law.

About Wolters Kluwer Law & Business

Wolters Kluwer Law & Business is a leading provider of research products and software solutions in key specialty areas for legal and business professionals, as well as casebooks and study aids for law students. Its major product lines include Aspen Publishers, CCH, Kluwer Law International and Loislaw. Its markets include health care organizations, law firms, law schools, corporate counsel and professionals requiring legal and compliance information. Wolters Kluwer Law & Business, a unit of Wolters Kluwer, is based in New York City and Riverwoods, Ill.

###

Media Contact:

Lacey Krause

Pierpont Communications

lkrause@piercom.com

713.627.2223