Chamberlain Hrdlicka Tax Attorney George Connelly Elected to the Board of the Better Business Bureau of Greater Houston and South Texas

Houston, November 17, 2016 – George Connelly, a shareholder in the Houston office of national law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka, has been elected to the board of the Better Business Bureau of Greater Houston and South Texas (BBB). For more than 100 years BBB has helped consumers identify trustworthy businesses and has set standards for and evaluated the practices of charities, so that donors know where the money they contribute goes. Additionally, BBB coaches businesses on ethical behavior and how to build strong and trusting relationships with their customers.

Connelly is a shareholder with Chamberlain Hrdlicka and leads the firm's Tax Controversy practice. He is recognized as one of the leading federal tax litigators in the United States, focusing on IRS audit, collection and criminal matters including civil and criminal tax litigation matters for clients including individuals, corporations and estates. Active in numerous Houston area civic and charity organizations, Connelly also serves on the board of Houston Public Media.
