Chamberlain Hrdlicka Welcomes Associate William A. Stone, III in Atlanta

Staff Report From Metro Atlanta CEO

Friday, August 30th, 2019

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce the addition of William A. Stone, III as an associate in the firm's Atlanta office.

Stone joins the firm's Tax Controversy Section which is composed of attorneys experienced in advising and representing taxpayers before federal, state and local taxing authorities and in all federal and state courts in which tax disputes are litigated.

Prior to joining Chamberlain, Stone clerked for the Honorable Joseph W. Nega of the United States Tax Court.

Stone earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Georgia, his law degree from Georgia State University (GSU) College of Law and his Master of Laws degree from the University of Florida (UF) Levin College of Law. While at GSU Law, Stone worked as a student attorney and graduate research assistant at the school's Philip C. Cook Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic.
