john.meredith@chamberlainlaw.comCHAMBERLAIN HRDLICKA EXPANDS ATLANTA OFFICE WITH THE ADDITION OF ATTORNEY NICOLAS BOHORQUEZ

ATLANTA, Aug. 10, 2020 – Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce the addition of Atlanta-based associate Nicolas Bohorquez. Bohorquez joins the Real Estate Practice Group, working closely with commercial real estate developers to move a project from concept to reality, while also collaborating with the Construction Law Practice Group to assist owners in all aspects of a project.

Bohorquez advises, negotiates and drafts real estate agreements for property development and operations, including easement agreements, lease agreements, estoppel certificates and construction contracts. He also guides clients in the approval process for land use matters. Bohorquez has collaborated with government officials to achieve strategic land use and zoning objectives. He served as lead counsel in a highly publicized Atlanta Beltline real estate matter, involving multi-party real estate litigation of federal and state law claims concerning ownership interests in railroad-line assets.

Bohorquez earned his undergraduate degree from Kennesaw State University and his law degree from Mercer University Walter F. George School of Law.
