ATLANTA, March 2, 2021 – Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce that it has elevated Atlanta-based attorney Jeffrey S. Luechtefeld to shareholder. This promotion was affirmed during the firm's virtual annual meeting held on Feb. 6, 2021, where an additional five attorneys were also elevated.

“This group of attorneys has contributed to the firm's success through their hard work and dedication to providing great client and legal service,” said Larry Campagna, Chamberlain Hrdlicka’s managing shareholder. “Adding them to the shareholder ranks reflects our continued growth and commitment to achieving excellent results for our clients. We look forward to their many achievements.”

Luechtefeld represents clients in IRS examinations, appeals and litigation. He has a deep understanding of inner workings of the Internal Revenue Service as well as a strong technical tax background. Previously, he led the regional Tax Controversy practice for a "Big Four" accounting firm. Prior to that, he was a litigator for the IRS Office of Chief Counsel. Luechtefeld earned his undergraduate degree from Missouri State University, his law degree from the University of Missouri School of Law and his Master of Laws degree from University of Florida Levin College of Law.
